

*Display / Functional Context

*Display / Functional Context

*Display / Functional Context

Primary Lockup Usage

In use, the 'Whole' primary lockup is to be sized roughly 1/3rd of the width of the working area or less and positioned in the top left corner, just above center on the left side, or bottom left corner of the working area.

The primary lockup should be used most of the time, especially in a functional contexts.